Sorry TSCA Workgroup members, but I just realized that I forgot to send you the summary from our most recent meeting held on January 9, 2019 (attached along with supporting documents "TSCA Quick Summary" and "PMF Blank Study Final Report" by Rodenburg regarding silicone). I would appreciate if you could review and provide any comments before our next TSCA Workgroup meeting scheduled for February 6. Please note that our meeting was focused primarily on Tasks #2 and #3 so that should greatly simplify your review (recall that only items in blue are the most recent meeting minutes).

Thanks,

Doug
